

Cello Gals

2:00pm—3:30pm— Porch # 1, 76 Lee Street

Meet the Cello Gals, Ellen Deremer and Carol Moses. We are two gals who have a passion for playing cello. We met in the Main Street Symphony Orchestra, Ensembles, and a soloists. We look forward to sharing our love of music with our Jefferson Community.

Good Night Drive

5:00—6:00pm — Porch # 1, 76 Lee Street

Good Night Drive is a duo featuring Stephen Jansa and Cindy Murchland, playing a wide variety of music from the '60s to current. While as a duo our style is very acoustic, we have many talented musician friends who often join us and contribute to a little more rock version of each song.

James T Crow

2:00—3:30pm—Porch #2, North Public Square

5:00—6:00pm—Porch # 15, 154 Washington Street

Fingerstyle guitarist James T Crow performs a repertory of roots and ragtime blues, old time country and folk songs from the American music traditions of the first half of the twentieth century as well as more contemporary songs done in the older styles. This vintage music tells the stories of bygone times and lost locations presented in an updated fashion.

Zach Haines

3:30—6:00pm— Porch # 3, 15 College Street

Straight from Jefferson, Georgia, Zach is a country music singer and songwriter and a veteran of the United States Army. He began playing the guitar at the age of 10 and learned most of what he knows from watching older family members play at get gatherings. He calls his style, “back porch picker.”

Jason Elder

3:00—5:00pm—Porch # 4, 27 Sycamore Street

They’re an acoustic four piece band, playing originals and reworked pop/rock covers. They have participated in Athens’ Porch Fest and are excited to be joining us in Jefferson!

Aron Hollis

2:00—3:00pm—Porch # 5, 30 Sycamore Street

4:00—5:00pm —Porch # 6, 86 Martin Street

31 year old Single father, Georgia born and raised. I have been making music for over 20 years. My interest in music came from my father, uncle, and their friends playing music when I was just a child. To see videos and a list of upcoming shows, follow me on Facebook, Instagram, and TikTok all under Aron Hollis.

Scarlet Stitch

2:00—3:30pm—Porch 7, 91 Martin Street

Based in Athens, GA Scarlet Stitch is a rock band that has written original songs and putting twists on covers for over 13 years.

Justin Stroup & Brooke Pruitt

5:00—6:00pm—Porch # 7, 91 Martin Street

3:30—4:30pm —Porch # 10, 107 Church Street

2:00—3:00pm—Porch # 12, 133 Dickson Drive

Justin Stroup, age 34. I grew up in the church with my dad as a pastor and I've been leading worship for 20 years in various ways and places. Brooke and I led worship together for a while at Southside Church and believe the message of the Gospel is the important truth that world is so desperately seeking.

Jefferson First United Methodist Church Pianist

2:00—6:00pm—Porch # 8, 188 Martin Street

Jefferson First United Methodist Church Pianist will be playing throughout the day.

Wounded Katz

2:30—3:30pm & 4:30 —5:30pm—Porch # 9, 216 Storey Street

Formed in the garage of David and Emily Gaines just a couple of years ago--David, Emily and Stephanie Whitley are proving that it's never too late to pursue your passion for music. As empty nesters, they came together to fill their time with something fun, and music became their new adventure.

The band's combined experience spans several decades. Stephanie sang in church in the 90s, David has experience comes from being in a band back in the 70s. Emily, who, despite having never played before, took on the challenge and has learned to play the guitar, bass, and even a tad of harmonica!

With their unique blend of experiences and newfound love for music, "Wounded Katz" is a band that proves that it's never too late to chase your dreams and create beautiful music together. Be sure to catch their performance at PorchFest 2024 and witness their passion and joy firsthand!

Tyler Parrish

2:00—3:00pm—Porch # 10, 107 Church Street

3:30—4:30pm—Porch # 16, 56 Washington Street

5:00—6:00pm—Porch # 14, 100 Lawrenceville Street

Tyler Parrish lives in Bethlehem, and he enjoys playing many genres as acoustic songs with his own original interludes. If you want to join in on the music, you are welcome to come jam.

Thomas Gay

2:00—3:00pm—Porch # 13, 52 Lawrenceville Street

5:00—6:00pm—Porch # 10, 107 Church Street

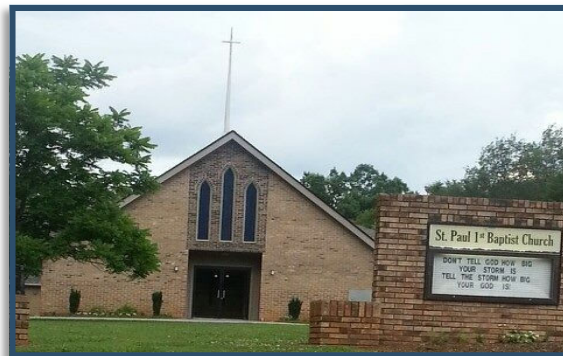

Thomas Gay began playing guitar over Covid, but has been playing other musical instruments and singing since he was a kid. Thomas's has family roots in South GA, he now lives in Athens where he spends time writing his own music. His favorite artist is Merle Haggard.

Follow Thomas on Instagram at Thomasgay.music.

Jefferson First Baptist and St. Paul's First Baptist Combined Church Choirs

2:00—3:30pm—Porch 11, 76 Institute College Street

The Heard

4:00-6:00pm—Porch # 11, 76 Institute Street

Acoustic entertaining with a great set of familiar, sing-along Americana, bluegrass, country, folk, and gospel with family-friendly jokes, music history, and good fun for all.

The Heard entertains with an acoustic-based set of familiar and original tunes that encourage their audiences to sing along, tap their toes and lift their spirits. Their tunes bring the fun and spirit of old time, family-friendly music to their shows with jokes, light humor, and tidbits of music history are a fun time for everyone.

Rail Town

3:00—4:00pm—Porch # 15, 154 Washington Street

5:00—6:00pm—Porch # 12, 133 Dickson Drive

Rail Town consist of Mark and Donna Garrison, a husband and wife duo, playing a wide array of music that crosses all genres and is sure to have something to please everyone—From 70's soft rock, Americana, Country, Pop, to current tunes. Mark is a seasoned musician that has played Rock, Bluegrass, Country, Americana, and Pop. He is a singer/songwriter and was the founder of the award winning band, Blue-Billy Grit. After a lifetime of passion for music and writing, Donna learned to play bass during the Covid pandemic. With an enate sense of rhythm she caught on quickly. Together they have rock solid timing that comes from years spent in a home where music is a daily part of life.

Sally & The Side Kicks

2:00—3:00pm—Porch # 16, 56 Washington Street

4:00—5:00pm — Porch # 13, 52 Lawrenceville Street

Sally Stites enjoys her hometown of Jefferson where she is Music Director of the annual Foliage Fest and enjoys playing for many Jefferson events. Sally is a graduate of The King's College, NY attending on a Philadelphia Music Scholarship; recorded with "Dino", taught music in grades pre-K through College, has been teaching piano and violin for 50 years, has been a church organist, choir director and pianist and is the organizer of the Sun Room Gang and the Jefferson Fiddle Kids. She is a "Georgia Fiddler" and an Atlanta Country Music Hall of Fame Honoree. Her first priority is her husband, Bob, of 59 years, their 4 married children and 9 grandchildren.

McCall Conner & Anna Gamble

3:00—4:30pm—Porch # 14, 100 Lawrenceville Street

McCall is a singer/songwriter/worship leader who spent her childhood in Jefferson and is proud to call Jefferson her hometown once again.

McCall began singing at various churches early in her childhood. As a high school senior she released her CD, that contained her single, "Revive Us Again," which climbed to #8 in the Central Pennsylvania Contemporary Christian Music Charts.

McCall is currently part of the worship team and when she is not leading worship, you can find her at White House Salon in Jefferson where she is a hairstylist.

McCall is married to Sasser Conner, who is excited to return to Jefferson to teach at JMS and coach the Offensive Line for the 9th Grade Dragons Football Team. McCall & Sasser are looking forward to being a part of the growing Jefferson community and are grateful for the opportunity to be a part of Jefferson PorchFest and live in such an amazing place.

Anna is a worship leader who loves Jesus deeply. She began using her gift of music and worship leadership at the age of fifteen. She has spent the majority of her life leading worship at her home church, which she loves and cares for deeply. She has also used her gifts to serve other churches and at many events. Anna has been involved in full time ministry for the last decade until this past year. The Lord opened doors for her to begin teaching 5th grade and serving in new places. Anna is currently a part of the worship team at Athens Church and serving her community, as well as other churches, in the area. Anna is married to her high school sweetheart, Tyler Gamble, and they have three beautiful children, Izi (9), Ivie (5), and Easton (2).

They all live in Jefferson and they love being a part of this special community. The Gamble family is excited to be a part of the Jefferson Porchfest and contribute to their community.

Mariachi America De Atlanta

4:00—6:00pm—Porch # 17, Revival Hall

16 South Public Square

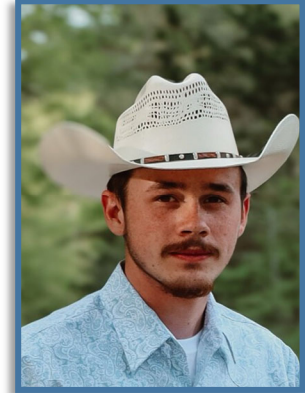

Mariachi America De Atlanta is Georgia's #1 Mariachi band. This 6 piece band features authentic Mexican flair and foot tapping beats with traditional melodies.

Tray Gooch

4:30—6:00pm—Porch # 18, Calaboose

142 College Street

Tray Gooch is a Jackson County Georgia native. He started singing Southern Gospel at the age of 8. As Tray got older, his musical talents started to encompass country and bluegrass music. His primary passion is to bless others through his music.

Liam Searan

2:30—3:30pm—Porch # 18, Calaboose

42 College Street

Liam Searan has been playing guitar for around 10 years. He listens to all genres of music but he specifically loves the 60s and late 2000s Rock N Roll. His Dad and Oasis have inspired me to play music! He grew up in Nashville, TN but moved to Georgia in 2021. He is very thankful for all the support he has received from people around him. He says it's been an amazing year with all of the people he has met and been around to learn from.

Michael Burel

3:30—4:30pm—Porch # 12, 133 Dickson Drive

5:30—6:30pm—Porch # 5, Friends Jefferson Grill

30 Sycamore Street

Michael Burel is a self taught musician from Pendergrass, GA. After graduating from Jackson County High School in 2022 he got his first guitar and does acoustic covers of various artists such as Zach Bryan, Turnpike Troubadours. He can be found playing with the Ivan Duke band on occasion or on social media @michaelabmusic.

